Dinner Discussion Mon, 3/17/08, Nitery, Rm 209

- Compline
- Dinner! Thanks Irene + Anna!
- Upcoming events:
  - Mon, March 23rd, 7:30pm, Dinner Discussion with Dr. Tikey Zes, Nitery, Rm 212, on Byzantine Chant
  - Fri – Sun, March 28-30th: Lenten Young Adult Retreat, Boulder Creek, CA
  - Fri – Sun, March 28-30th: Holy Cross Spiritual Odyssey Retreat, Belmont
  - Fri, April 4th, 7pm, Yanni’s Apt, 1225 Clark Way, Palo Alto: Movie Night! The Island (Ostrov)
  - Mon, April 14th, 7:30pm, Dinner Discussion, Nitery rm 212: Christ at Work, chapter by Stylianopoulos on "A Life Worthy of God"
  - April 21 – 26th: Holy Week Services (see schedules)
  - Sun, April 27th, 11:30am, Holy Cross, Belmont: Agape Vespers + Picnic with Metropolitan Gerasimos and Fr. Peter, if can read Gospel in another language, email: frpeter@goholycross.org
  - Sun, April 27th: EASTER!!! HellAS lamb roasting.
  - Tuesday, May 6th: Rastko’s Family Feast, more info upcoming…
  - Thursday, May 8th: Divine Liturgy, 7pm Memorial Church
  - Early May sometime: Hiking trip
  - May 25th, 7pm: "A Bridge of Hope" Concert
    Chamber instrumental, choral and vocal music by Kirill Dyachkov
    St. John's Presbyterian Church in S.F., 25 Lake Street (at Lake and Arguello)
    Some music online at: www.myspace.com/kirilldyachkov

- Discussion: Barnet, “Seek First His Kingdom: An Invitation to Christian Vocation”
  A monk answered a question on vocation and getting married vs becoming a monk by saying, "God doesn't care. God only cares that you seek first his kingdom". What does it mean to seek God's kingdom? Does God call us for a special purpose? How does He reveal to us our vocation?